

MILLIONS OBTAINED FOR MARKETING TEXAS COTTON KLANSMEN TO PARADE IN ROCKDALE AUGUST 30TH

FARM BUREAU OF TEXAS
GETS NEW YORK MONEY

In sixty centuries of infinite pain and tearful prayer borne as tribute to this thing we call civilization the crime of the disputants in Jerusalem who set upon Stephen the devout, and stoned him to death because he preached the doctrines of the Man of Galilee, is as modern as that of record in Milam county when on last week members of the same mob stoned a minister of God. So after all we have progressed no farther. Preaching among the Mexicans, this minister, a strong man in Southern Methodism, had begun a meeting near Maysfield. Years of heart hunger and night and the stars, are his reward, and stoning his portion in this day of wickedness. In Heaven's name is there no protection for men such as these—preaching Christian doctrines in a Christian nation, then to be set upon by a mob and stoned, is an indictment against our boast of freedom.

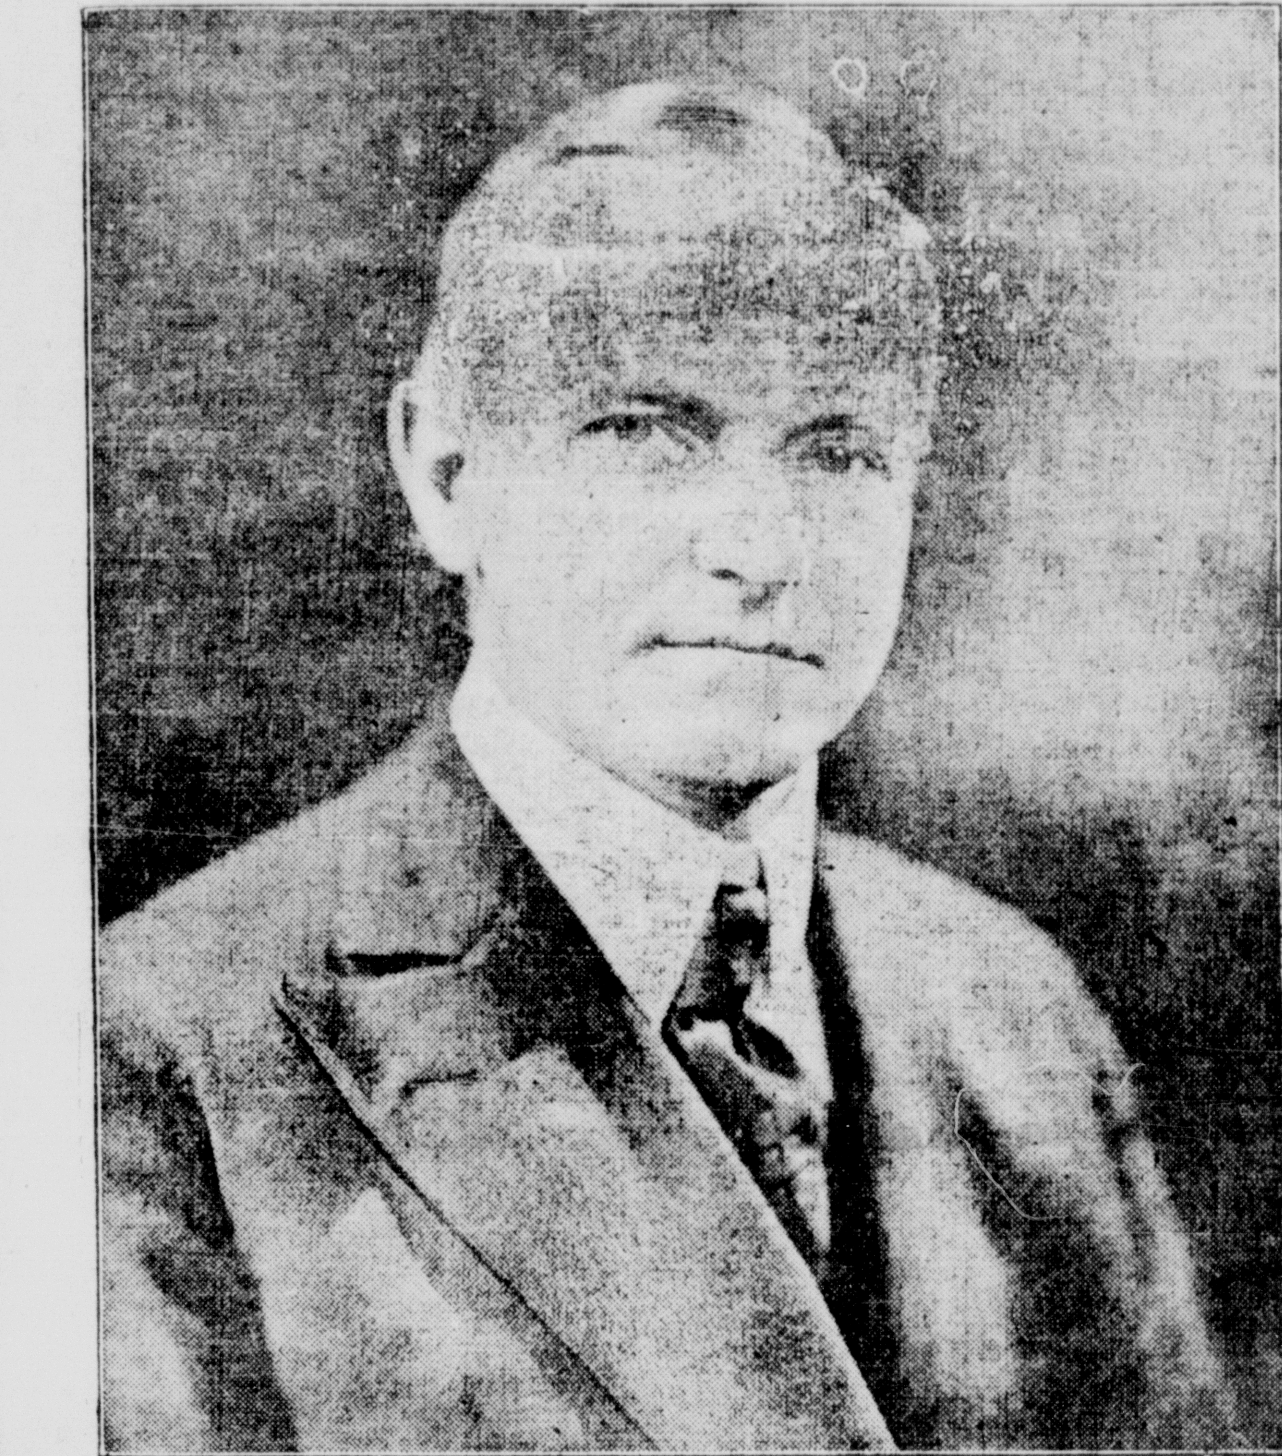

Now that Lieutenant Governor Davidson is again in the chair at Austin, press dispatches tell how he will again capture the murderers of Otto Lange. In our opinion if the Governor isn't careful he will disturb some of the political capital he has made at Somerville, for no one now believes any secret fraternal society is responsible for this crime. What Cameron folks are thinking about is why the murderers are not brought to the court house.

If to be persistent in annoying "Our Town" editor will find some solace in the fact that on Monday of this week work was begun in the improvement of the Yoe High school campus. If what we have had to say regarding this needed civic enterprise has helped in any way those responsible for the upkeep of the school to see the need for civic attention, we are ready to salute and retire. We no longer view with alarm the increasing probability of a 1924 bumper weed crop, but rather we suspect that the landscape artist will fix it up grand like.

Just as we predicted last week, the building of better schools in Cameron, is to be postponed. Not because the need does not exist but because no agreement can be reached where so many interests converge in the program for public improvements. A series of public improvement projects now demand attention. The school is perhaps without enough immediate champions to place its needs as first demand upon the community and in the opinion of some must be set aside for more worthy objects. "Our Town" editor is not ready to agree that we do not need better facilities nor will he agree that the needs of the schools should be second. However, if other public improvements such as the rebuilding of the Ad Hall-Minerva road is more imperative, street paving and other things more necessary, we favor them all and invite one or all of them in the form of an official ballot. If we won't build the school, lets build the road.

Every business man in Cameron who values the progress of his town should actively support the Commercial Club. Those who are not widely and who withhold their support for factional reasons do themselves and their town an injustice. Those who manifest no interest except selfish interest belong to a dead age and those who take no part at all are playing an unworthy part in the business we are engaged in of building the community. The road to reaction is the way of indifference and of factional jealousies.

About all there is to a town is home industry. Take away from Cameron its industries and we will have about as much town as there was here when Columbus discovered America. "Our Town" editor suggests that the next time we want to build a road we send the subscription lists away and let the mail order houses and nearby merchants and manufacturers circulate them for funds. In this way we can build a great community here without cost to us, for dollars that come in help but dollars that go away are never seen again. If the practice of some folks both citizens and business men alike were to become the general program of the people here, Cameron would be Waco, Temple or Dallas would be bigger. And yet folks do that very thing. Traveling salesmen are supported at the expense of the local dealers and manufacturers who can sell the same thing. Believe it or not there is being manufactured in Cameron many articles of food, beverages and other things "better by test" than Waco or Temple, yet business men who live at the expense of the people here send their money away. It's a twist of economic philosophy that we simply cannot understand. Cameron needs every dollar of its wealth preserved. Buy your ice cream, drinks, dry goods, groceries, auto and tires, printing and hardware, and everything under the sun at home and don't make it necessary to make any further reference to our lack of appreciation of local industries.

CALVIN COOLIDGE the Thirtieth President of the United States.

JUDGE W. C. DAVIS WILL SPEAK AT CHURCH HERE

FORMER DISTRICT ATTORNEY AND BAPTIST LAYMEN HERE SUNDAY.

Judge W. C. Davis of Bryan, chief justice of the new court of civil appeals at Waco, and former district judge of Brazos and Robertson counties and former district attorney in Milam county, will deliver an address at the Baptist church in Cameron Sunday August 19 at the eleven o'clock hour.

Judge Davis has been invited to speak to the church here as a part of the program of supplying the local pulpit in the absence of the pastor Rev. R. C. White who is in Asheville, N. C.

During the past two Sunday's laymen H. M. Roark and O. L. Kidd, have talked at the eleven o'clock hour.

Judge Davis numbers his friends by the hundreds in Milam county and the church here expects a large crowd to hear him. While district attorney of Milam county he served with distinction and since moving to Bryan his work as District Judge brought him favorably to the attention of Governor Pat M. Neff when the latter came to fill the judicial positions created by the recent legislature in establishing new courts.

Deacons of the local church are preparing for the service with every expectation that the day will be one long to be remembered in church history here. Judge Davis being a prominent Baptist Layman people from many sections of the county are expected to attend worship at the eleven o'clock hour.

COUNTY TAX RATE IS SAME AS LAST YEAR.

The tax rate for Milam county for 1923 has been set at 62 1-2 cents which is the same as last year. The state tax rate is the same at last year, 75 cents, making a total county and state tax of 1.37 1-2. The total tax paid here is about $3.50 taking into consideration the local and road and school taxes.

Elwood Atkinson spent last week at his uncle's home in Maysfield.

2,534 BALES RECEIVED AT CAMERON COMPRESS

Cotton receipts up to noon Thursday are as follows at the Cameron Compress:

By S. A. & A. P. R'y.....	1746
By Santa Fe R'y.....	80
From City.....	708

Total.....2534

The movement of 1923 cotton has begun to show signs of general activity. The barometer on the cotton yield can best be obtained from the Cameron Compress which has kindly furnished the Herald with these figures. As a matter of important information the number of bales received takes precedence over all other commercial news at this time.

Cotton received from the city as shown in the table indicates the number of bales ginned in Cameron and nearby and hauled to the compress by truck and wagon.

METHODIST MINISTER IS REPORTED STONED HERE

MEXICANS NEAR MAYSFIELD SAID TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR ACT.

Information has been received by the sheriff's department that a Methodist minister, prominent in the missionary work of the church in Old Mexico, conducting a revival meeting near Maysfield in this county, was stoned by Mexicans and forced to abandon a meeting begun by him several days before. No cause has been publicly assigned for the attack on the minister but reports are that clue has been found.

The minister who resides in San Antonio and whose name is Onerdnk is said to have told friends in Cameron of his fleeing from the enraged Mexicans incited to the deed, and the matter has been laid before the sheriff's department by local people.

Miss Bessie Dunham of Tracy has accepted a position in the office of county clerk, H. M. Roark. Mrs. H. H. Hartsfield, formerly Miss Minnie Mayes, was assistant to chief clerk Hughes and this place has been filled by Miss Dunham who is very efficient and experienced in the work. She was formerly in the office of County Judge W. G. Gillis.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE FOR CITY OF CAMERON

J. D. DOBBINS NOW IN MARKETS BUYING GOODS FOR NEW BUSINESS HERE.

J. D. Dobbins, grocery merchant and well known here in business circles for many years, will establish a dry goods store, in the building now occupied by the Farmers Store and operated by him.

Mr. Dobbins is in Dallas this week to complete purchases of goods for the new dry goods store.

For the present about half of this building will be devoted to dry goods, the other half to the grocery business. This will make two stores operated by Dobbins in Cameron, the main store being his grocery business.

J. E. Collins who has been with the Cheeves Brothers store in Cameron for several years will have charge of the dry goods department in the new store.

ROCKDALE DELEGATION HERE ON ROAD MATTERS.

Thursday in county commissioners court a large delegation of citizens from Rockdale appeared to get the court to change the line of road district No. 10 to make it conform to the commissioners precinct in the Rockdale community.

SILENT MEN INVISIBLE EMPIRE TO MARCH THERE

AUGUST 30 DATE SET FOR BIG DEMONSTRATION IN REGAL CITY.

It became known in Cameron Wednesday that a mammoth Klan demonstration and parade will be held in Rockdale on the night of August 30, the same being Thursday.

This will be the twelfth demonstration of the Klan in Milam county during the past six weeks and will likely be the largest Klan assemblage ever known in the county with the exception of the initiation ceremony held in Cameron in 1922.

It is believed almost certain that the Klan is planning to parade in Cameron as a climax to the activities over the county, and will stage at the county capital one of the largest Klan Demonstrations ever held in Central Texas.

Rockdale has a large membership in the Klan, the organization there being larger than the organization in Cameron. It is believed the parade there on August 30 will be a large gathering of Klansmen from all over the county.

MODERN BANKING HOUSE FOR STATE BANK HERE

BETTER FACILITIES FOR BANK PROVIDED IN NEW MODERN BUILDING.

With the completion of the new building for Cameron State Bank in Cameron, the city will number among its great assets one of the most modern and up to date banking houses in this section of the state.

It is expected that the work of completing the interior of this building, the setting of fixtures and installing the giant vault door will be completed within the next ten days or two weeks.

The banking room is built on the most modern plan yet evolved by architects.

The lobby of the room will be built in horseshoe shape with the working space traversing the massive curve and all windows situated at convenient places for the customers. The lobby will be laid in gray tile.

At the rear of the working space will be found the room for the directors and also rest rooms for ladies and gentlemen. All of the wood work is in birch and white mahogany finish the floors being of cement with plaster walls.

The safety vaults will occupy the space of the old cash vault used by the bank, giving plenty of room with every modern deposit feature for the customers.

The heat for the building will be the Accola system, strictly modern and efficient in every way.

The new vault for the bank will be a two compartment vault to take care of store room and for the cash. This vault will be entered through the mammoth ten thousand pound steel burglar proof door which arrived here this week and is being installed.

At the right of the main entrance will be found the offices of T. F. Hardy, president of the bank and to the left the first room will be a consultation room and adjoining this will be the office of Geo. T. Graves, cashier of the bank.

The building is constructed of stucco design with logia in tile at the entrance. The windows will have massive grates and the logia with seats will make an attractive and distinctive appearance for the banking house.

The color scheme of fixtures for the bank will be mahogany and marble of gray finish. Two sky lights are built in and ventilated for the comfort of the working space and for the lobby.

P. S. Silbers & Co., of San Antonio are the architects; S. Sweigert of Waco, contractors; Mailander & Co., of Waco, fixtures. The vault door of improved time lock design and weighing five tons was purchased from the Mosler Lock and Safe Co., of Hamilton, Ohio.

Messames G. A. McHenry and C. E. Muller, motored down from Dallas last Wednesday and spent a few days visiting in the city. Their visits always give genuine pleasure to their Cameron friends.

$10,000,000 INITIAL ADVANCE TO HANDLE MARKET SYSTEM OF BUREAU.

New York, August 15.—A New York banking syndicate, headed by the Seaboard National Bank, and Goldman, Sachs & Co., today completed arrangements for a large loan to the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association for the purpose of assisting in the orderly marketing of the cotton crop in that state.

While the amount of the loan was not disclosed, it is understood that it will at least be $20,000,000 and may be substantially more, depending upon the size of the crop and the price for the product.

The initial credit is understood to be for $10,000,000 with a series of others as they are needed. Under the terms of the agreement the association undertakes to market a certain amount of its product each month and it was assured the bankers that 90 per cent of the crop will be sold when the final paper matures June 15 next.

While the details of the loan were not made public it is understood that the interest rate will be slightly higher than the association paid on a $12,000,000 loan last year because of the higher discount rate in effect now. Last year's loan was arranged through Southern banks with several New York banks participating.

The interest on that loan averaged 5 1-2 per cent. This year's loan is the largest cotton credit ever organized under local financial leadership.

Negotiations for the loan has been in progress for several weeks between Colonel Sloan Simpson, of Dallas, Texas, treasurer and trustee of the association and the local bankers. Colonel Simpson returned home several days ago and the final details were concluded by wire.

The loan is to be secured by warehouse receipts on cotton stored in the Houston Compress Company in Houston, Texas, the largest independent warehouse in the state and not connected in any way with the association. The cotton so stored is to be graded according to specifications mutually agreed upon between the association and local bankers, the latter being assured of a conservative margin as security for the loan.

The Texas association is the largest of its kind, having a membership of 27,000 cotton planters in all sections of the state. Last year the association handled 77,000 bales of cotton and this year it expects to make between 175,000 and 225,000 bales.

Smaller associations operated on similar lines have been organized in the Carolinas, Louisiana, Mississippi and other Southern states.

A large number of Milam county cotton growers have become members of the marketing association and this loan to market the cotton will affect hundreds of bales in this county.

HOMER PEEL IS GIVEN A SILVER BALL AND BAT

FORMER COMET MOST VALUABLE MAN ON MARSHALL CLUB IN EAST TEXAS.

For being the most valued player on the team Homer Peel former Comet star was awarded a silver ball and bat by the club at Marshall in the East Texas League Tuesday. His many friends and admirers in Comet territory will appreciate the following which was taken from the Dallas News of Wednesday:

Marshall, Texas, August 14.—Homer Peel, crack outfielder of the Marshall Indians of the East Texas League, known as the "Silent Man" of the team, was awarded the silver ball and bat Monday as the most popular player on the club.

The presentation was made at the ball park by Jack Blalock before the last game of the season on the home grounds started.

The bat and ball was the gift of Henry Windt, local jeweler.

THIEF MAKES GOOD HAUL.

Last Sunday night a thief entered the garage of Wm. Balhorn and took four coils from his Ford car and a pair of Weed chains and a tire pump. In addition the thief made a raid on his chicken lot and took several choice chickens. Mr. Balhorn declares he cannot afford many more such raids and wishes the thief would divide time with other folks if he must operate un molested.

NEGROES ATTACK FARMER IN WILLIAMSON COUNTY

CONFESS TO CRIME AT AUSTIN WHERE TAKEN FOR SAFE KEEPING.

Austin, Texas, August 12.—Confession of Jesse Binkley, negro, in connection with assault on Will Keeling at Jarrell Friday night was given Sheriff Lee Allen of Williamson county early today by Binkley, who was brought to Travis county jail for safe keeping. Sheriff Allen stated tonight. Bennie Mitchell, second negro held in the case, was implicated in the confession. Sheriff Allen said.

Binkley and Bennie Mitchell, another negro, were placed in jail here at request of Sheriff Allen when a mob attempted to storm the Georgetown jail it was stated. Mitchell has maintained his innocence. One of the negroes stood behind the door at Keeling's home, and struck Keeling on the head with an axe, while the other negro shot him, according to the confession. Sheriff Allen said.

Georgetown, Texas, Aug. 12.—Sheriff Lee Allen of Williamson county returned here tonight from Jarrell and announced that he today checked up statements made by Jesse Binkley in a confession at Austin Friday midnight, concerning the attack on Will Keeling, and had corroborated every detail of Binkley's statement.

Physicians today removed a portion of Keeling's hat band and a fragment of skull larger than a dollar from Keeling's head where he was struck with an axe, it was announced tonight. Keeling is improving and is expected to recover it was stated.

Will Keeling, Prairie Dell farmer who was attacked with an axe and pistol in his home Friday night after he had returned home from church, was reported resting well in a local hospital yesterday. Physicians entertained hopes for his recovery.

A hole about an inch and a half square was made in his skull over the right eye, but high on the temple, by the axe blow and part of his black felt hat was found lodged underneath the shattered bone when physicians operated Saturday morning. The brain tissues, however, were not touched it was said. He was shot through the right thigh but this wound is not serious. He was still conscious yesterday and continued to talk of the incident. His story of the attack was in line with the confession made by the negroes, being held in Austin, it was said by local authorities who interviewed him.

The negroes fled after failing to kill him and he is said to have pursued them some distance, though wounded with the axe blow and the pistol shot wound. He had a child in his arms at the time of the attack and was unable to defend himself against the carefully planned attack in which one negro struck him with an axe in the dark and another shot him from behind a door.

LATE DODGE CARS HAS IMPROVEMENTS ALONG MANY LINES.

Marked improvement in appearance and comfort is apparent in the new line of Dodge Brothers motor cars, in the production of which the factory has just been gathering momentum since July 1. Hundreds of dealers are now supplied with display cars of the new type, and from every source the factory is receiving reports of enthusiastic approval by the public.

While the basic characteristics of the familiar Dodge Brothers cars of recent days are still present, there is an air of distinctiveness that surpasses all previous efforts of this concern to build a moderately priced car of commendable appearance as well as quality.

The wheelbase is a trifle longer, the body is lower and the rear springs changed to semi-elliptical type are under slung, and increased from 45 to 55 inches in length.

All the features so popular with the public today are embodied in the design of the complete line, which includes a touring car, roadster, coupe, two types of sedan, and screen side and panel side commercial cars of three-quarters ton capacity. All steel bodies—as first introduced by Dodge Brothers in their open passenger cars several years ago—are now used for all types.

The effect of the longer and lower body and longer wheelbase, combined with the new lines and lower seats, is very fine. According to dealers and others who have driven the new cars, the improvement in riding qualities is no less pronounced than the improvement in general design.

The rear seat and all upholstery of the touring car are removable, affording a large space for loading luggage or other articles. Seats in all types are deeper and lower, adding to comfort and leg room.

The instrument board is greatly improved in appearance, with instruments grouped on a raised panel and with longer lighting switch lever, facilitating control of the lights while driving.

Head lamps are specially designed to harmonize with the new body lines. A combination caution signal and tail lamp is mounted rigidly on the lighting regulations.

The front springs are increased in length and from 1 3/4 to 2 inches in width and built of more leaves of a thinner stock. The rear springs, in addition to being longer, are now semi-elliptic and flat.

The front axle is a design unusually strong. The cabber, or inside of the front wheels, is increased, making steering easier. A rear gear ratio of the rear axle gives increased flexibility and adds to the ability of Dodge Brothers cars as hill climbers.

The fiscal year ending July 1 was the most successful in the history of Dodge Brothers, their dealers having marketed approximately 200,000 cars. With the improvements now put into effect, obviously making the car better and more attractive in every way though still retaining the essential attributes to which the car owes its great popularity, it seems quite evident that this company has not yet reached the maximum of its potentialities, despite the tremendous record of the year just closed.

If Kidneys Act Bad Take Salts

Says Backache Often Means You Have Not Been Drinking Enough Water

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and sluggish. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

J. D. DOBBINS The Man Who Saves You Money

THE FARMER'S NEW POSITION

By WALTER W. HEAD,
First Vice-President American Bankers Association

The farmer today is more than a tiller of the soil. He is a business man. Raising crops is only a part of his business, if he is a real up-to-date Twentieth Century farmer. Problems of marketing, distribution and financing are equally important.

The complexity of our modern economic organization makes it necessary for the farmer to understand and assist in solving these problems if he is to succeed. In this new role—as a business man—the farmer steadily has advanced to a better position.

There was a time when the farmer was dependent wholly upon private marketing agencies, whose interest was not always identical with his own, whose greed for profits sometimes out-matched consideration of the farmer's need. Today there are many great co-operative marketing organizations that handle a large part of the farmer's crop and win for him more liberal treatment from the private agencies which still handle the bulk of his production.

Today the farmer also has his own co-operative agencies of credit. If not satisfied with the terms upon which his local capitalist is willing to advance money upon a land mortgage, the farmer can go directly to the Federal Land Bank, which, by reason of tax-exemption and other advantages incidental to its governmental character, can loan money at a rock-bottom rate of interest.

In addition, the federal government has established another group of banks which permit the local bankers—by rediscount privileges—to extend the farmer credit for his current operations on a more favorable basis than ever before. If he thinks his local bank is not sufficiently responsive to his need, this same legislation enables him to join with other farmers in a co-operative marketing association and arrange for credit direct from the government banks.

New Credit Facilities

For years it has been the farmer's complaint—with considerable justification—that he, alone of all producers, has been forced to market his crop on the buyer's terms because of his inability to use his products, in storage, as a basis for credit. Today the agricultural credits act authorizes the acceptance of warehouse receipts, on non-perishable agricultural products, as collateral for loans, the same as in the case of sugar or other commodities of commerce.

These developments have relieved the farmer from what seemed to be persecution by short-sighted, tight-fisted, grasping grain dealers, landlords and bankers—for there were some bankers who were guilty of this very thing, who thought of the farmer principally as a weak and ignorant opponent in a game whose only stake was the collection of a high rate of interest. The farmer's suspicion of the banker arose because of misunderstanding, because he judged bankers as a class by the derelictions of a few. Today, with these sources of government-controlled credit available at his call, the farmer cannot charge or even suspect that the bankers are conspiring to do him harm.

As the real farmer has taken advantage of these opportunities, he has made himself a business man. Like other successful business men, he is equipped with credit to finance his operations, he is able to make use of labor-saving machinery, he is able to barter with buyers of his products as their equal.

Chautauqua, N. Y., August 14.—“The initial step toward a better observance of our laws consists in arousing the public conscience to the sense of the duty and the responsibilities of citizenship,” Gov. Pat M. Neff of Texas declared in a speech here today in which he called upon the “Minute Men of America” to answer the question as to whether the laws of the land should be enforced. His attention was devoted principally to the Volstead act. “There can be seen today in this country, on every hand, a general revolt against governmental authority,” the Governor said. “Lawlessness is organized and commercialized. It is bold and insolent in business affairs and is struggling for recognition in the social and political world,” he said. “Whatever the cost, the Government must enforce her laws or ultimately go on the rocks of anarchy and ruin.”

A veiled criticism of the action of the New York Legislature in repealing the State enforcement act was made. Mr. Neff suggested as a means of securing better law enforcement that “all antiquated laws should be wiped off the statute books.” He said in part:

“All antiquated laws should be wiped off the statute books; fossilized court procedure should be abolished; tedious technicalities which interfere with the judgment of the courts should be done away with; trial should be had immediately after the offense is committed; punishment for crime should be certain; sickening sentimentalists should cease mollycoddling criminals; red-handed murderers should not be petted as heroes; the escape from punishment of criminals after conviction should be made reasonably impossible; immunity should be given to no professional criminal; potential criminals should be made to know that if they violate the law, punishment will be swift and sure; the high-up criminals should be prosecuted and convicted as well as those in humble and obscure walks of life; those should be elected to office who do not themselves violate the laws nor connive with lawlessness; officers who, for any reason, fail or refuse to enforce the laws should be, by proper legal procedure, speedily removed from office; the men of the country who really believe in law and order should not dodge jury service nor fail anywhere along the line to hold up the hands of those who are making an honest effort to enforce the laws of the country.”

“No law should be repealed merely because its violators sometimes escape punishment. ‘Thou shalt not kill’ is a law hoary with age. However, from the time Cain killed Abel murder has been on the increase. It is conservatively estimated that we have, in the United States, 10,000 homicides a year. During the nineteen months we were engaged in the world-wide war we lost 50,280 soldiers. It is almost half as dangerous to live at home, in time of peace, as it is to fight abroad in time of war. Only about 3 per cent of those in this country who commit murder are convicted and punished. Are we, for that reason, to repeal the laws against murder? Murderers would favor the repeal. Law against theft is older than the Ten Commandments. Notwithstanding that, any day anywhere you pick up a paper you can read an account of the stealing of an automobile. Should we, for that reason, repeal the laws against theft? Certainly no law-abiding citizen would think so.

“The official report of the institute of economics at Washington testifies to our lax enforcement of the law by stating that through burglary, theft, robbery and swindling, the people, during the year 1922, lost over $2,000,000,000. These laws are as old as civilization. What law-abiding citizen could suggest their repeal, or make easier their violation? Who is advocating the repeal or modification of our prohibition law, not an old law, but a new one, because it is not enforced at all times and places?

The bootleggers, the whisky men and those who sympathize with them are the ones who say it should be repealed.

“Instead of repealing these laws, they should all be strengthened and perfected. He is a spineless citizen and an unworthy American who gives hope and encouragement to these law-breakers and law defiers by raising in their behalf, the question as to the power of the Government to enforce her constitutional and statutory laws. Whatever the American people will to do, they can do.

“The prohibition amendment was adopted by precincts, by counties by States, and, finally, by the Nation. Out of the 2,543 counties in the United States, only 305 were wet in 1916. The people voted for national prohibition, forty-six States ratified it, and Congress, by a two-thirds vote put the seal of its approval on it. That constitutional provision written by the people into the Constitution of this Nation, is there to stay. If any one thinks the American people will ever take a backward step by the repeal of the prohibition law, let him consign that thought forever to the limbo of oblivion. That issue is settled. It is not the eighteenth amendment that is now on trial. It is the American Republic. It is not the Volstead law. It is all law. “In the enforcement of the eighteenth amendment, each State has a duty to perform. For the first time in the history of this country, in providing for the enforcement of that law, concurrent power of the Nation and the State was written into the Constitution. The prohibition amendment is the law of the Union. Therefore, each State should assume its responsibility and courageously discharge its duty. No State should now desert the prohibition cause and leave its enforcement exclusively to the Federal Government. It is the solemn duty of every State to help enforce the Constitution of the Nation. No State in this Union whose public servants even claim to respect the memory of Thomas Jefferson will compel the National Government to usurp the police powers of that State by admitting an unwillingness to enforce the prohibition laws. Surely such a policy of negation tends to destroy the sovereignty of the State. Certainly no State, by refusing to enforce a law, should compel the Federal Government, in order to preserve the Constitution, to expand its functions to perform what the State is empowered and authorized to do. Such refusal would prove the State no longer in accord with the Constitution. No State, consistent with its relation to the Union and its sister States, can sulk in its tent, like Achilles of old, and leave the battle to its comrades, when the enemies of law and order seek, as against all the States and the general government, to ignore and override the fundamental law of the land. The State guilty of such disloyalty dims forever the luster of its star, placed on the flag by the Nation to emblem the sovereignty of that State.

“There should be no rum running industry on the Atlantic Coast. Our Colonial fathers threw English tea into Boston Harbor to teach King George III, that Americans had rights which must be respected. It may be that the time is near at hand when the worthy descendants of those illustrious patriots of '76 will be compelled to throw foreign beverages into Boston harbor to let all the world know that no intoxicants can be manufactured, transported or sold on land or on sea where rightly floats the flag of the American Republic. No agency of any kind, even though sailing beneath a foreign flag, should be permitted openly to flaunt the laws of this Nation on American territory.”

The Good Roads Committee had the hearty co-operation of the citizens residing along the road which was constructed.

R. C. Knipp furnished the teams and labor to do the necessary grading cutting sugrade and spreading of the gravel. Messrs. Koring, Schulz and Schwarting checked the gravel. Will Vogelsang solicited funds to enable the people residing near the road to pay a sum equal to the amount contributed by the Cameron citizens.

It was the intention of the Good Roads Committee to give the name and amount contributed by each individual residing on or near the road, but it could not be ascertained in time for this report to be published this week and this committee thought it best not to defer the report. However, the various amounts collected by Messrs. Vogelsang and Knipp have been deposited in the Cameron State Bank, which will be seen from the above report.

BODY OF W. C. MORRIS FOUND NEAR THE HOME

TEMPLE FARMER NEAR CITY HAS BEEN MISSING FOR WEEK.

The body of Wilford C. Morris, 25 year old farmer who had been missing from home since Wednesday, was found in a ravine about 400 yards west of his home yesterday afternoon. Mr. Morris lived about one mile north of Temple on the road extending from North First street.

The body was in such a condition that an inquest held by Justice of the Peace R. E. Williamson failed to determine definitely the cause of death. There was nothing about the spot where the body was found to indicate how death was met and the condition of the body prevented any effort at determining the cause. The body lay in a clump of weeds to one side of a small lane down the ravine and was shaded by a willow tree.

It was believed that Mr. Morris had been dead since Wednesday. Statement from his wife and a number of others were taken at the inquest and it was found that he had left home Wednesday shortly after noon and had gone toward the lane near which his body was found. When he did not return a search was instituted and grew more anxious as days passed and still no trace was found of him. He had been to town Tuesday to deposit some money in a local bank and this was the last time he had been seen in town, it was said. Several neighbors had seen him Wednesday, but nothing was heard of him after Wednesday afternoon.

His father and family declared that he had no enemies as far as they knew and had been "a quiet, peaceable" young man.

The inquest returned an open verdict, and failed to place the cause of death. Judge Williamson said that he had no way of determining the cause of the death because of the condition of the body and the absence of any attendant evidence to indicate how death came.—Temple Telegram.

LADY GOT SO WEAK COULD SCARCELY STAND

After Suffering From Many Female Troubles This Lady Heard of Cardui and Took It, She Says, "Until I Was Well."

"SOME TIME AGO," says Mrs. Buena McFarland, of R. F. D. 2, Bostic, N. C., "I suffered a great deal with weakness common to women. I had bearing-down pains, my sides and back hurt, and my limbs drew. I would get so weak in my knees I could scarcely stand.

"I was very nervous, and could not rest. I didn't feel like eating. I grew thin, and did not have ambition for anything.

"I had been trying other remedies . . . but did not get any better.

"Some one told us of Cardui, and it was recommended for, I also took a Ladies Birthday Almanac and read of a case something like mine. I told my husband to get it and I would try it.

"I saw a great improvement after the first bottle (of Cardui), so I kept it up until I was well. Now I am the picture of health."

Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others.

Cardui has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Try it.

DODGE BROTHERS ANNOUNCE IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS

Dodge Brothers have not simply brought out a complete new line of motor cars. They have done something infinitely wiser and better than that.

They have brought new beauty, new riding ease and new mechanical perfection to the product on which their reputation as builders has been founded.

They have built a better and a more desirable line of motor cars—yet basically and fundamentally the identity of their product remains the same.

The same sturdy engine is under the hood; the same dependable chassis, improved in numberless details, underlies the body.

But the rear springs—now underslung—have been materially lengthened. The wheelbase, too, is longer, and the combined result is a notable improvement in riding qualities.

Bodies of all types have been designed to give improved appearance, and greater comfort. Lower, longer, with deeper seats and more leg room, the lines of these new cars are low-swung and graceful—the interiors are comfortable and roomy.

New head lamps and fenders, especially designed by Dodge Brothers to conform with the general lines of the car—a long straight hood and cowl effect—longer and wider running boards—unusually wide doors—combination stop signal and tail lamp—and instruments attractively grouped on raised panel—are a few of the numerous body innovations common to all types.

Combining these features with important mechanical improvements too numerous and technical to enumerate here, it is not extravagant to predict a reception for these cars unprecedented in automotive annals.

INSECT AND DROUTH DAMAGE SERIOUS DECLARES GEO. B. TERRELL.

GEO. B. TERRELL, Commissioner of Agriculture, gave out the following report today:

"This report covers the condition of corn and cotton up to August 1st. These reports represent about 200 counties and are sent in by practical farmers, bankers, business men, county commissioners, and Farm Demonstration Agents, and the summary given below represents the combined judgment of these reporters. Damage from drouth and insect pests is very serious.

"Acreage 98 per cent of last year. Condition 88 per cent of normal, which indicates a yield, a little less than last year. The U. S. Government's figures for last year are 5,729,000 acres, with a yield of 114,580,000 bushels. The figures this year, based upon 18 bushels per acre yield as shown by our reports, indicate a crop of 103,132,000 bushels. This is only given as an approximation of the correct yield.

"Acreage 15 per cent increase over last year or about 14,000,000 acres. Condition 67 per cent of normal, which represents a yield of one fourth of a bale per acre, or 3,500,000 bales. The cotton crop is about three weeks late, and is not fully matured. They are picking cotton in some fields and plowing cotton in other fields in the same locality. The yield may be greater or less than this estimate, according to weather conditions and insect ravages during the next few weeks. It is not humanly possible to correctly forecast the yield at this time.

"The U. S. Government report for the entire cotton belt seems to be a fair and conservative estimate, but a little too high for Texas. Our report shows a condition of 67 per cent while the Government report shows 71 per cent, and the Government report indicates a crop of 4,075,000 bales, while our report, based on one fourth of a bale per acre, indicates a crop of 3,500,000 bales. This difference is partly accounted for by the fact that our report is made up to August 1st, or one week later than the Government report, and cotton has failed rapidly during the past week from drouth, which is very serious in many parts of the State.

"Domestic consumption and exports of cotton amount to 1,000,000 bales a month, or 12,000,000 bales a year. The entire crop of the South is estimated to be 11,000,000 bales in round numbers, or 1,000,000 bales below consumption. Nothing but a world war or a financial panic can keep cotton from advancing the latter part of the season, when the shortness of the crop is fully realized. Not a bale of this crop should be sold for less than 25 cents per pound, as it has cost over 20 cents per pound to produce it, and it should bring 30 cents before the cotton year closes. The statistical position of cotton is stronger than it was last year, when the price went to 31 cents, because the carry-over is less.

"I warned the farmers and business interests last year against the suicidal policy of dumping the cotton upon the market so rapidly, but the policy of dumping was continued, and they lost millions of dollars by the blind policy pursued.

"The business interests can save this terrible loss this season, if they will finance the crop before it leaves the farmers' hands instead of financing it for the speculators after it leaves the farmers' hands.

"If we would sell only 1,000,000 bales a month for the next three months, cotton would bring 30 cents, before the end of the three months.

but if the crop is sold as fast as gathered, it may bring less than 20 cents instead of 30 cents, which all the conditions justify."

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous For Cameron People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backaches, headaches, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary trouble, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease may follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in Cameron.

T. F. Weaver, Box 443, Cameron, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for some time and they have never failed to give me good results. At times I have had slight attacks of backache and the action of my kidneys annoyed me.

Doan's Kidney Pills always gave me the desired results when I used them for these attacks. I keep Doan's on hand and recommend them as a kidney remedy of merit."

PROGRESS UNDER COOLIDGE MOSES DECLARES NEW CHIEF WILL RUN FOR THE PRESIDENCY OF U. S.

Concord, N. H., August 13.—U. S. Senator George H. Moses in a statement issued today declared that President Calvin Coolidge would be a candidate for the republican presidential nomination in 1924 and that he ought to have a solid New England delegation.

Senator Moses' statement said: "President Harding's death has made a great change in the political landscape and President Coolidge is now an outstanding figure on the republican horizon. He will undoubtedly be a candidate for the nomination in the next republican national convention and he ought to be able to take a solid New England delegation with him."

FORDSON TRACTOR

Greatest Utility of the American Farm

It has solved the Power Problem on Farms throughout the world.

It will solve the Power Problem for Milam County Farmers

Harvest Season--the Golden Months of the year when grain must be stored for the long winter months, and hundreds of power problems are presented with the task of conserving the yield, brings out distinctly the need of such a utility--such aversatile combination of power as the Fordson Tractor embodies.

Every good farmer knows the care with which he must prepare the soil for planting the next crop. Here is where the Fordson Tractor is at its best. Plowing requires more power than any other phase of the farming industry. Making good under the most drastic tests on the farm, the Fordson Tractor is the most adaptable utility in all the world for the various requirements of the farm.

This is but one phase of the need now so deeply felt by every farmer for better farm methods and power to better harness his great industry. Harvest time is here. Soon the yield will be safely stored and the all important task of soil preparation will engage the attention of the farmer.

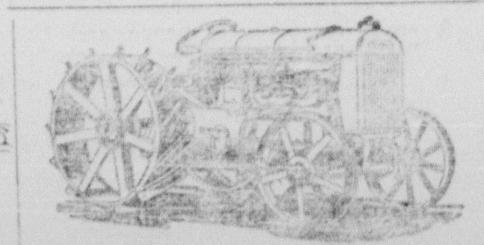

FARMERS OF MILAM COUNTY--

The season of harvest is here and the time for soil preparation will soon be here. The Hubert Hefley Motor Co., authorized Fordson dealers, invites the aid of the farmers to improve farm utilities. Tractors in stock for your inspection and demonstrations will be held for the farmers and every co-operation possible given to aid the farm industry.

THREAT OF COAL SHORTAGE AND EXTORTIONATE PRICES

Consumers of anthracite coal are facing another threat of shortage and extortionate prices not only because of the impending strike of the miners but also because the little protection that was given them last September in the form of the law creating the office of Federal Fuel Distributor and prohibiting profiteering is about to be withdrawn.

This law expires by express limitation on September 22. As Congress will not be in session until next December the statute can not be continued in operation and no new legislation to take its place can be enacted in the time to be of any value.

Republican politicians in New England are showing uneasiness at the prospect that the Washington administration will be held responsible for the suffering and gouging of the people of that section are likely to experience this year. The recollection of the hardships and profiteering to which last year's famine exposed these consumers is still fresh in their minds.

Already the price of anthracite is soaring and even in Washington, D. C., under the eyes of Federal officials supposed to be clothed with the authority and duty to prevent profiteering there is complaint from consumers. A consumers' organization has found, according to its president, that the supply and the price of anthracite are controlled by interests which seem to be having an understanding among themselves.

REPUBLICAN "ALIBI" BLAMES
FARMERS THEMSELVES.

Republican propagandists are now attempting to explain and remove the farmer's dissatisfaction by telling him that his troubles are due to excessive taxation levied on him by the State, county and township. These local taxes, the Republican propagandists insinuate, are voted by the farmer himself and the responsibility is therefore chiefly his own.

Taxation in Minnesota, where the Republicans suffered a ruthless repudiation a few weeks ago, is taken as a text for one of these Republican "alibis." It is pointed out that in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, the cost of government in Minnesota was $17.6 per capita, or nearly twice as much as it was in 1918. This increase in taxes, it is hinted, is to be charged to the people of Minnesota and not to the National administration.

All this effort to shift the blame from the Republican administration and the Republican Congress to the shoulders of the citizens of Minnesota is not likely to mollify the voters of that State or any other, but it is of interest as showing that the leaders of the national administration foresee the difficulty the profiteers' tariff is sure to make for them in the next presidential campaign and also as a proof of the arguments they are preparing for their defense.

Democrats call attention to the fact that Minnesota has been under Republican control for many years. Its legislatures have been overwhelmingly Republican. Its governors for more than a decade have been Republicans. All its various departments have been in charge of Republican officials. Its entire delegation in Congress—Senators and Representatives—has been Republican. Both in its local affairs and in its participation in the Federal Govern-

CHARGED IN SHOOTING OF C. B. BERRY AT PADUCAH ON MARCH 7 LAST.

Benjamin, Knox county, Texas, August 14.—The District Court convened here Monday with Judge J. H. Milam presiding. The grand jury was impaneled and began work. A number of criminal cases appear on the docket, one of which is the case of the State of Texas vs. J. B. Sneed, charged with assault with intent to kill C. B. Berry.

The case grows out of the shooting of Berry at Paducah, Cottle county, on March 7, last. On Nov. 10, 1922, Wood Barton, son-in-law of Sneed, was killed on the streets of Paducah. Berry was tried for this offense at Seymour in July and acquitted.

The case of the State vs. Sneed is set down for trial on Sept. 3. The State will be represented by District Attorney J. Ross Bell and County Attorney T. W. Templeton, the defendant by McLean, Scott & McLean of Fort Worth and James A. Stevens of Benjamin.

Berry is charged by complaint with assault with intent to kill Sneed on July 2, 1923. Sneed is reported to be yet confined in his home in Cottle County as a result of the shooting. Approximately 100 witnesses will be in attendance on the case here.

John Beal Sneed was reared in Milam county and is well known here by the older residents of the county and Cameron.

REDFIELD-FLAKE.

The following announcement will be of interest to Cameron friends:

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Flake announce the marriage of their daughter, to Mr. Clarence Marion Redfield on Sunday August twelfth, Nineteen Hundred and Twenty Three, Mexia, Texas. At home 1212 North Fifth Street, Waco.

Miss Elizabeth Flake was a member of the Yoe High School faculty last year and had been reelected for the 23-24 term. She was popular in school and also in social circles. Mr. Redfield is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Redfield and grew to young manhood in this city. He was for several years a clerk in the Cameron postoffice, resigning his position to complete his education in Baylor University. After leaving Baylor, he returned to Cameron and was engaged in business for a while with F. F. Reid. At present he is city salesman for the Willis-Holland Wholesale Drug and Sundries Co., in Waco.

Many friends will join with the Herald in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Redfield the best in life.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Friday, August 10, marked the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. John Bonds of Rockdale. They were happily surprised that evening by the arrival of their children and other relatives who thought the occasion worthy of a real celebration and so motored from Thorndale, Salty and Cameron to spend the evening and make merry. The guests had very thoughtfully provided a lunch which was served and partaken of by the following:

Mr. and Mrs. John Bonds, Miss Maud Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garner, Rockdale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams, Thorndale, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bonds, Cameron, who compose the immediate family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clement, Salty, Sam Clement and son, Jack Clement and family, Jones Clement and family, Charles Saller, Misses Emma and Mattie Saller, Thorndale, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Triggs and son, and Mrs. Pearl Clement of Cameron.

Mrs. Bonds was Miss Lillian Clement, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clement, early settlers in Milam county who reared a large family of sons and daughters to rise up and call them blessed and to emulate their example as Christian citizens. This family has always been loyal to Milam county and to her highest interests and at this time all of their descendants, children and grand children, live in the county except three grand children, George Clement, son of Mrs. Pearl Clement of Cameron, who is in Chicago and two children of Frank Clement who live in Austin.

BAPTIST AUXILIARY.

The Baptist Circles met for Bible study Monday afternoon.

Circle one met with Mrs. Elbert Martin, Mrs. H. M. Roark, leader, five members were present.

Circle two, met with Mrs. W. A. Deal, Mrs. George A. Thomas, leader. A social hour followed this meeting during which delicious refreshments were served.

Circle three, met with Mrs. J. B. White, Mrs. T. S. Henderson, leader.

Circle four, met at the church.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY.

All circles of the Presbyterian Auxiliary met at the church in business session Monday afternoon. The president, Mrs. W. G. Gillis, presiding.

METHODIST MISSIONARY.

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon for Mission study. Mrs. W. O. Triggs conducted an interesting lesson on mission work in India.

Mrs. R. L. Batte was hostess for the afternoon and after the study period served a refreshment course consisting of chicken loaf with cream mayonnaise, apricot salad, bread and butter sandwich, olives, crackers and ice tea. She was assisted in her duties as hostess by her two little daughters, Mary Bell and Lelia.

Monday Judge Jeff T. Kemp and County Engineer A. F. Mitchell went to the Black Bridge on the road from Jones Prairie to Calvert to make an inspection with the view of the county making repairs on the bridge.

ROCKDALE PASTOR IN CAMERON PULPIT.

Rev. W. E. Copeland, pastor emeritus of the Rockdale Presbyterian church, preached morning and evening at the Presbyterian church in this city Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. R. McFadyen, who is away on a months vacation.

Mr. Copeland is eighty-four years old and has been preaching the gospel for more than half a century, the major part of this time in Milam county. His mind is fresh and vigorous and he presents Bible truth always in an attractive and forceful manner, leaving his hearers something to comfort and to inspire them.

He has practically lost his eyesight but repeats accurately from memory entire chapters both from the Old and the New Testaments.

He is a Scotchman by birth but has lived in our neighboring city for many years, in fact, he enjoys the distinction of being the oldest Rockdalian.

His Cameron friends hope that it will be their privilege to hear "this gentleman of the Old School" many times before he passes to his reward.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Last Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock Cameron joined with other cities and towns of the United States in holding memorial services for President Warren G. Harding.

The exercises were held on the Court House lawn and were well attended. T. S. Henderson, Jr., was master of Ceremonies.

Judge W. G. Gillis and Hon. T. S. Henderson delivered appropriate addresses.

The exercises were opened with prayer, led by Rev. Ira F. Key, pastor of the Methodist church. The closing prayer was made by Rev. Simon Spinneweber, pastor of St. Monica Catholic church.

The musical number included the President's favorite hymn, "Lead Kindly Light."

KLAN GIVES MONEY TO NAZARINE MINISTER.

In the last issue of the Herald it was said that the Ku Klux Klan had made a donation of money to Rev. Talley, a Methodist minister at Gause. This was an error and the correction is sent in by a Gause Klansman for which we extend our thanks.

The minister was Rev. Tyler, minister of the Nazarine church who was conducting a meeting in Gause at the time of the donation.

LEGION TO TAKE OVER FLAG AND POLE HERE.

The American Legion will have charge of the flag pole and the flag on the court house lawn in Cameron henceforth. Judge Jeff T. Kemp is having the pole repainted and a new cord placed so as to be able to lower and raise the flag. A. F. Mitchell commander of the post will look after the flag, to see that it is properly displayed. The flag pole was donated to the city by the First National Bank.

NEW LINCOLN CAR IS ATTRACTING INTEREST AMONG AUTO OWNERS.

This week the Hubert Hefley Motor Company has on display in its show room a Lincoln Phaeton or sport model, the first Lincoln car to have been exhibited in this city.

The car has been purchased by Mr. Hefley and is for sale and the price is $4100. This is the most expensive and best automobile ever shipped to Cameron by a local dealer. The Lincoln is one of the higher priced cars in America and folks here now have an opportunity to see what Henry Ford can do when he tries.

HOME INDUSTRY DESERVES PATRONAGE OF CAMERON BUSINESS INTERESTS.

Speaking of the duties of citizenship toward home industries the people of Cameron and especially the business men who retail soft drinks and ice cream products owe a great deal of consideration to the Texas Bottling & Ice Cream Company, manufacturers of soft drinks and ice cream.

"Best by Test" is a good standard by which we may judge the ice cream product put out Mr. Henrichsen and while he has a large patronage here and surrounding territory, some of the dealers insist on buying their cream from outside points and having it shipped in. The point Mr. Henrichsen wishes to make is that all patronage should be confined to local industries, the firms that build good roads and keep up with the civic burden of the town.

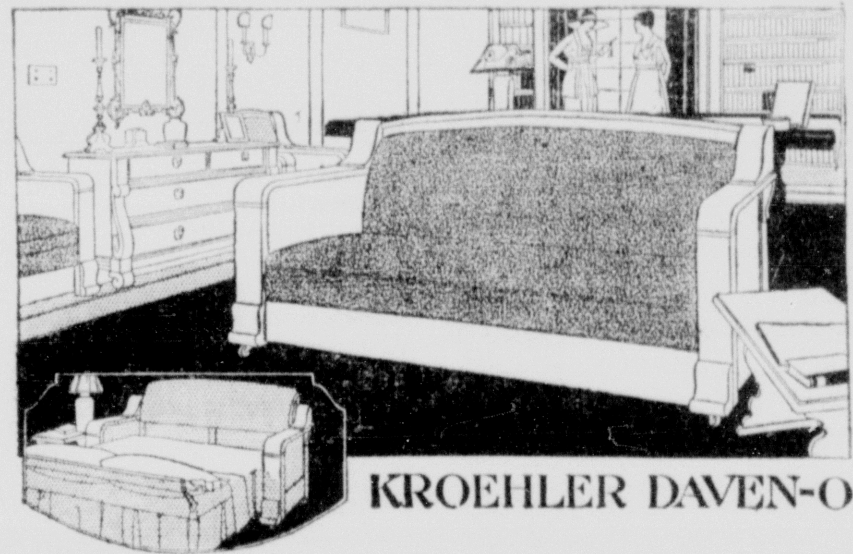

So far as has been learned here no outside manufacturer of drinks or ice cream has contributed anything to the building of good roads and other things.

After all about all there is to our town is home industry and should be patronized to the exclusion of all other industries.

SCHOOL TAX INCREASE IN BUCKHOLTS LOSES.

With small interest manifested in the election at Buckholts the proposition to increase the school tax from 50c to 75c lost by a vote of 56 to 17. So unusual has become the defeat of school tax elections that the defeat has attracted attention and caused considerable comment here.

Mrs. Jess Thach and little daughter, Catherine, of Fort Worth are here visiting with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. John Laywell.

FREE SCHOOLS OF TEXAS ARE PUT IN JEOPARDY

MAY BE ABLE TO OPERATE FOR ONLY FOUR MONTHS NEXT YEAR.

Austin, Texas, August 13.—The life of Texas free schools is again in jeopardy, and the public schools of the state will be able to operate for only four months during the coming year on the $12 per capita apportionment made Saturday morning by the board of education, Superintendent S. M. N. Marrs said Saturday afternoon.

Superintendent Marrs said that the situation looks unusually bad, due to the fact that the schools cannot expect further initial assistance from the state for the year, unless emergency appropriations are made by the legislature. The board of education met Friday, but at that time did not come to a definite conclusion in the matter of apportionment. Indications were that the apportionment would be only $12, which turned out to be the case at the meeting Saturday. This apportionment includes the $2,000,000 supplemental appropriation made by the last legislature in the final called session, but does not include the $1,500,000 appropriated for the coming fiscal year for rural aid.

A total of $1,500,000 was set aside by the board to meet the text book contracts let last fall, which is in accordance with the former decision of the board that the book contracts are legal. This leaves the balance in the book fund at $600,000. The new contracts call for approximately $2,000,000. Only $449,000 will be required out of the new year's school funds for buying books in case the old text book contracts are upheld and the new ones ruled out, Supt. Marrs said. At present the text book funds set aside cannot be used for other school purposes.

Another possible source of revenue for schools has turned out to be a false hope, as the attorney general's department will rule that the state motor vehicle license tax is not an occupation tax and hence one-fourth of it will not go to school fund.

This information was placed before the attorney general a short time ago for a ruling. The schools of the state would have received approximately $2,500,000 annually in case the ruling was that the license fee constitutes an occupation tax. The ruling on this question will be issued early next week, it was said. It is probable that test suits would be brought to test the question, as attorneys are urging the superintendent of education to take this step.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.

PUBLISHER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

Subscription Rate Increase

Increased cost of print paper, materials and labor create a condition that demands increase in the subscription price of the Cameron Herald and accordingly on September 1, 1923, the subscription price of the paper will be increased from $1 per year to

$1.50
Per Year

Papers mailed out of the county will be $2 per year. This is made necessary by reason of increase postage in zones far removed from the county postage schedule.

All who are owing for their papers may now renew their subscription at the dollar rate before Sept. 1

All new subscribers will obtain the old rate until Sept. 1, but after that date all subscriptions will be $1.50.

This increase is dictated solely by sound business policy as increased costs have made it necessary to sell the Herald at an increased figure.

NEGRO FARMERS TAKE FARMERS SHORT COURSE

COUNTY AGENT HEADS DELEGATION TO PRAIRIE VIEW NORMAL.

Quite a few of the representative farmers of the negroes of Milam county took advantage of the short course at Prairie View. We made the trip in cars according to the advice of our Agent, and the trip was very interesting, passing through five counties and noting the progress in farming in each county. Proud are we to state that from indications along the high-ways Milam county has a better prospect for crops than any of the five. The Agent had a large pennant on the leading car with the insignia "Milam County Farmers" off to Congress at Prairie View, which caused much speculation as we passed through the towns of Hearne, Bryan, Navacota and Hempstead. Great is Milam county for leaving its impression upon those who have once been citizens here, for it was displayed in the expression of white gentleman operating a filling station at Bryan, after he had read the insignia, he said hurrah for Milam county, the best all around farming county in Texas.

On arriving at Prairie View, the Agent at once turned us over to a committee for a brief review of the campus, after an hour and a half inspection the delegation assembled in the assembly hall to listen to a splendid lecture, given by an expert from the A. and M. College, Mr. Short, on rotation, seed selection and pest control. Next came Miss Horton, assistant state director in women's work, another specialist from A. and M. who in her pleasing manner showed our women and girls the value of home economics and the great use of things about us. To bad that every farmer didn't hear these experts.

Leaving the assembly hall we witnessed a judging contest among the boys and girls of livestock and poultry, wonderful it is to see the many points brought out by our boys and girls in this judging and it will only be a matter of time when livestock and poultry will be bought and sold according to type or breed. A stunt program by our club boys and girls was a success, then came Mr. T. O. Walton, state director of the Extension Service, who lectured out of his heart on co-operation of the farmers and agents to assure leadership and accomplish the goal the government has set for this work.

Wednesday until noon was spent visiting the Agents meeting where we learned of the success and the complicated problems of the various counties of the state as discussed by the Agents and the farmers. This was indeed an enthusiastic session. After noon we listened to a lecture from Judge Gossit of the Federal Loan Bank of Houston, telling of the purpose of the bank as well as well as reviewing the accomplishments. Then came the awarding of prizes to the boys and girls which proved a great stimulant in the club work in the various counties. Winners in socks and stocking darning, for first prize, Miss Audie Lee Martin, 2nd prize, Miss Myrtle Burrell, 3rd prize, Miss Thelma Ragsdale; winners in button hole work, 1st prize, Miss Lucy McCalister, 2nd prize, Miss Lillian Spencer, 3rd prize, Miss Lenora Eastland. The enrollment of girls and boys at the short course were more than 200 and the farmers and their wives nearly as many. Milam County carried the largest delegation, being more than forty farmers, their wives, boys and girls. We wish to thank our Agent for the amount of interest manifested in our county this year and the effort put forth in carrying this delegation of representative farmers, among which was Toney Pittman, Abe Walker, Randolph Young, Mose Phillips and others.

Giving Children Chance To Grow Unhampered By Physical Defects Is Child Health Demonstration Aim

AWAY WITH DEFECTIVE VISION.
© MANSFIELD CHILD HEALTH DEMONSTRATION

Of the many activities of the Child Health Demonstration now being conducted in Mansfield and the remainder of Richland County, Ohio, none, perhaps, is of greater importance than the health supervision in the schools.

It is through this phase of the program that defects in the school child are ascertained and remedial action is taken upon the advice of those conducting the clinics.

Where Mansfield may be said to improve upon the usual health supervision of children is in the thoroughness of its examinations. The eyes, the ears, the teeth, the tonsils, the adenoids, the lungs, the heart, all organs vital to the health of the youngster are inspected carefully by able physicians, assisted by the nurses, and action is taken to eradicate defects.

As a result of these examinations the children needing attention are divided into three classes. Those most nearly normal are called "observation cases" and they are given careful attention by the nurses at each school inspection. Secondly, there are the "follow-up" cases, which are attended regularly at home as well as in school by the nurses. The third class, being those with pronounced defects, are those requiring immediate medical attention.

When the children included in the third category have parents who can afford to pay for needed medical care, removal of tonsils, etc., they are referred to the family physician. If the parents can not pay, the youngsters are given care at a clinic established in the Mansfield hospital, and the expenses are met, often, by members of civic organizations in the city.

This clinic was not established until the subject had been thoroughly thrashed out by the physicians over a period of seven months. Those opposed to it believed that it might encourage some parents to take advantage of it and say they could not afford to pay when such was not the case. This argument was answered by compiling a standard family budget. This is applied to all families who apply for free treatment for their children, and if it is found that the salary of the father can not support the home and pay for the medical care, it is given free. As a result of these school examinations, scores of Mansfield school boys and girls have improved greatly in health, and with this improvement there has come an accompanying gain in scholastic work. Well children, it has been found, assimilate teaching more rapidly than those who are ailing.

The school clinics are conducted by units composed of two physicians, a dentist and a nurse for each school. These examiners are assisted by a volunteer clerk, who often is appointed by the Parent-Teacher Association.

The Mansfield Child Health Demonstration is an experiment, through which it is hoped to show what co-ordinated effort by the various agencies dedicated to child health work can accomplish for the child, beginning with the pre-natal period and continuing through to adolescence.

The Demonstration is financed by the American Red Cross and has been placed under the supervision of the American Child Health Association. This is the organization of which Herbert Hoover is the president and which was formed by the recent merging of the American Child Hygiene Association and the Child Health Organization of America.

Mansfield and Richland county, which are situated in the heart of Ohio's rich farm belt, were selected as a more or less typical American community, so that the methods of health work in the Demonstration, if it were to prove successful, might be applied to any other location in the country.

NEW STATE LAWS ARE EFFECTIVE ON AUGUST 14

LIGUOR LAWS MADE MORE STRINGENT BY RECENT ACTS.

Austin, Texas, August 13.—All laws enacted by the second called session of the Thirty-Eighth Legislature, effective ninety days after final adjournment, became operative Tuesday, August 14, and some of the more important of these are:

Changing the method of capital punishment from hanging to electrocution; prohibiting negroes voting in Democratic primaries; collection of an inheritance tax and the collection of delinquent taxes; placing a tax on coin-operated vending machines.

Blue sky law, regulating the sale of stock. Persons desiring to promote stock concerns must have permit issued by the Secretary of the State. The act carries an appropriation of $7,500 a year to be used for administration purpose. Oother laws which become effective Tuesday are:

Increases fees of Tax Collectors for motor vehicles licenses; validating municipal bonds signed by retiring public officials, remitting for twenty-five years State and county taxes in Wharton and Matagorda counties, to be used in constructing a forty-mile channel to the sea around the raft in the Colorado River. Providing for formation of lighting districts in cities; authorizing condemnation for facilities for removing sand, shell and gravel under State permits; authorizing separate tax assessments by independent Tax Assessors in independent school districts; validating a number of school districts; creating a State Park Board to further the creation of State parks; abolishing all special funds; appropriation of $25,000 for erection of a monument in the city of Houston to General Sam Houston; separation of department of insurance and banking; empowering board of control to use unexpended balance in completing American Legion Memorial Hospital at Kerrville.

Others are: Creating Texas historical board; fixing the method of nonresident guardians handling the Texas property of nonresident minors; extending oil and was permits on lands which are under or have been under control of a Federal receiver appointed by the Supreme Court of the United States; providing for organization of pools by banking corporations and co-operation as sociation composed of producers of agricultural products and live stock; collection of delinquent taxes in levee districts; provisions whereby citizens of Texas may obtain the benefits and loans under the Anderson Federal credit law, particularly applicable to farm land loans, so as to provide a low rate of interest on long time payments; regulating private employment agencies; placing closed season of five years on antelope and Rocky Mountain sheep.

EDISON-FORD PLAN'S ATTACK ON INTEREST

Abolition of Rent No More Plausible Than Abolition of Pay on Loans, Expert Shows.

It is no more unreasonable to pay interest on a loan of money than to pay rent on a house, declares William T. Foster, Director of the Pollack Foundation for Economic Research, in exposing the fallacy of the attack on interest charges by Henry Ford and Thomas A. Edison in their commodity money scheme to do away with the present financial system. Mr. Foster's argument is reviewed in the present article which is one of a series prepared by the American Bankers Association.

"The Ford-Edison commodity money plan is regarded as a step toward the abolition of all interest charges," Mr. Foster says. "Interest," says the Dearborn Independent, "is a tax that few ancient tyrants would have dared impose. Interest in actual modern practice is a contrivance whereby all production is taxed by parasites, and whereby money is given a supremacy over men, material and management which it cannot sustain."

Renting Money

"But is there really anything more terrible about paying for the use of money than about paying for the use of anything else? Suppose a farmer finds himself in need of a harvesting machine, and without enough money to buy one. In that case he can either borrow a machine of Neighbor Brown or borrow money and buy a machine. The farmer would consider it right to pay in some way for the use of the machine. Why should he expect to borrow money—which is honored in the markets in payment for the same machine—without paying for the use of the money?"

"Now let us suppose that the farmer uses the machine so successfully that he saves a thousand dollars. With that money he can buy a farm and he can let Neighbor Brown naturally would expect to pay rent. Instead of buying the farm, however, he could lend the thousand dollars to his neighbor in order that his neighbor might buy the farm. In that case Neighbor Brown should expect to pay for the rent of the money. All this seems clear. When the transactions are as simple as these it is plain that there is just as great propriety in charging for the use of money as in charging for the use of things that money will buy.

Loaned Money Builds a School

"We may assume, however, that the farmer does not want to buy land and Neighbor Brown does not want to borrow money. In that case the farmer deposits his thousand dollars in a bank and the bank pays him interest for the use of his money. But the bank can pay interest only if it makes profitable use of his money. Now the bank finds that the city needs a high-school building, and has decided to borrow enough money to construct it. In order to obtain the money the city has issued bonds, each of which is a promise to pay one thousand dollars at a specified date, and interest in the meantime at a specified rate. The bank buys one of these bonds. Thus the farmer has had a part in providing the city with a school building; and the farmer has just as much right to expect interest for the use of his money as though he had loaned the money directly or indirectly to Neighbor Brown."

Remedy for Peach Borer Proves 100% Effective

GOVERNMENT investigators have finally found an effective weapon to use against the "Peach Borer," an insect which has been causing an annual loss of about $10,000,000 to peaches, plums, prunes, nectarines and almonds. "Paradichlorobenzene" is the scientific name of the discovery, but it is probable that it will be known by its shorter and less formidable name, "paracide."

Two men are jointly responsible for the discovery and its development. They are Dr. A. L. Quaintance, Entomologist in Charge, Fruit Insect Investigations of U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Dr. Alvin Peterson, Assistant State Entomologist of New Jersey.

The Peach Borer has been one of the orchardist's most powerful enemies. Until the development of paracide, the one means of combatting it was by cutting it out of the tree with a knife or digging it out with a stiff wire. Such methods were expensive, laborious and uncertain. Oftentimes the crude methods caused as much damage as the borer itself and frequently resulted in shortening the life of the tree.

The Peach Borer is a white worm which feeds on the outer layers of the tree trunk or large roots, and may be detected by masses of fine, containing sawdust-like particles which exude from the trunk near the ground. Later it becomes a moth which lays many eggs, but it is as a worm that it is destructive.

Paracide should be applied in the fall. Early October is best in the South, late September for West Virginia and the Ozarks, and early September in the North. At these times the larvae which would mature the following spring can be killed. The ground around the tree is made clean and smooth, and one ounce of the material is strewn in a circle that is everywhere about two inches from the trunk. It is covered by a few shovelfuls of earth which are patted down by the back of the shovel and left for at least six weeks. The earth mound is then removed. Paracide volatilizes under the ground and forms a gas five times heavier than air. The gas, completely encircling the tree, smothers the pest but unless wrongly applied does no damage to the tree.

Careful records show that the treatment costs about 2 cents per tree for labor and material, and that results are nearly 100 per cent effective. In one large orchard 22,000 trees were treated by 50 men in three days, and in some 300 trees examined later only one Borer was found.

THE STORK BUSY HEREABOUTS

That inhuman, nameless nothingness alled the Stork has begun his August work in this community with a degree of vigor that suggest a record month of this community. Since the first he has visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rainwater and left a baby girl with them on last Wednesday, and on the third Friday, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDonald and left them a baby boy. From there went the same day to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Galbreath and left a baby boy in their care and keeping. And on the fifth of the month, last Sunday, they paid their respects to Mr. and Mrs. Warner Terry by presenting them with a boy. And we suppose they are still working on the job but we have been too busy to make further inquiry as to the special visits made since Sunday.—Thorndale Champion.

NEW FIXTURES BEING INSTALLED IN STATE BANK.

The new fixtures for the Thorndale State Bank arrived in Thorndale last Thursday and are now being put in position by an expert in the business. The fixtures are of marble and mahogany with grill work at the top, and will be very pretty when completed. The arrangement will be something similar to the arrangement of the fixtures which were burned when the building was destroyed in February with the exception that individual desk lights and other conveniences will feature the new arrangement. The State Bank will have a new home they may justly feel proud of when they shall have finished the work now in process.—Thorndale Champion.

AUTOMOBILE TURNS TURTLE IN BRIDGE EXCAVATION.

A very serious auto accident occurred Tuesday morning on the Taylor-Thorndale Highway a few miles this side of the section house. An elderly gentleman and his son and daughter were in a car and attempted to pass over the concrete bridge near the section house and the fact that workmen had made an excavation preparatory to rebuilding the bridge to conform to the requirements of the highway department unknown to them, their car plunged into the deep hole with a terrible crash. The front end of the car went into the hole and struck, leaving the car inclined about forty-five degrees. The occupants were compressed into one bulk against the windshield and the embankment of the excavation, resulting in the father being severely hurt, his front teeth being knocked entirely loose and broken out. Further than that the man is thought to be a Mr. Norris, living at Taylor, very little is known of the circumstances of the tragical accident, and from reports the son and daughter were not known to be seriously injured. Mr. Norris was taken to a Taylor sanitarium for treatment immediately. The excavation is at the approach of the bridge which had been condemned by the highway department because it was not constructed according to specifications and the contractors were at work rebuilding the bridge, according to our information.—Thorndale Champion.

WARM WEATHER HATCHES EGGS AT THORNDALE.

Notwithstanding the stereotyped expression that "there is nothing new under the sun," there is something new as a result of the effect of the sun in Thorndale. John Davis called the attention of a representative of the Champion to five fluffy young chickens he had in a box at his place of business this week and stated that the young chicks had been hatched from some eggs in the store without the aid of a hen or an incubator. Mr. Davis knew the eggs were of questionable age and had neglected to destroy them, contenting himself by permitting the eggs of questionable character to remain in an isolated position until a more convenient time to dispose of them. He perchanced to hear the young chickens chirping and upon investigation found five healthy chickens in the box.—Thorndale Champion.

MRS. LOUANNA SIDES.

Mrs. Louanna Sides, wife of James Y. Sides, deceased, and daughter of Jefferson Olive, an old Texas pioneer, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Hill, in Paris, Texas, August the 5th 1923 and was brought to Thorndale and on Monday afternoon Aug. 6, was carried to Lawrence Chappel and after a beautiful and impressive ceremony by Bro. Jester, Pastor of the Baptist church in Taylor, laid in the tomb to await the resurrection.

When death came it found her duly and truly prepared, she having been almost a life long Christian and devoted member of the Baptist church. She had been a great sufferer for several years preceeding her death, but bore her afflictions with patience and resignation.

Sister Sides was born in Wake county, N. C., Sept. 24th, 1849. The family moved to Texas when she was but a child and settled near Lawrence Chappel in Williamson county, where in the year 1874, she was married to James Sides, with whom she walked in loyal companionship until his death, Nov. 10 1922. They were the parents of eight children, 4 boys and 4 girls, all of whom are yet living except one boy who died in infancy namely, Thomas of Lubbock, Texas, Ellis, of San Antonio; Frank of Oklahoma City, Okla., Lottie, now Mrs. J. L. Hill of Paris, Texas; Aggie wife of Dr. E. L. Lawrence of Thorndale, Fannie wife of Chas. Johnson of Austin, and Allie, wife of C. T. Baker of Gano. All except one are devoted Christians and rejoice in the hope of meeting their sainted father and angel mother where there shall be no more death neither sorrow, nor crying. Neither shall there be any more pain.

With deep sympathy for the bereaved children and an earnest prayer that they may so live as not to betray the trust, nor disappoint the expectations of their devoted parents, of meeting them in Heaven.

I am an old acquaintance and friend of the family.

ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

MEDICINAL VIRTUES RETAINED AND IMPROVED—DANGEROUS AND SICKENING QUALITIES REMOVED. PERFECTED TABLET CALLED "CALOTABS."

The latest triumph of modern science is a "de-nauseated" calomel tablet known to the drug trade as "calotabs." Calomel, the most generally useful of all medicines thus enters upon a wider field of popularity,—purified and refined from those objectionable qualities which have heretofore limited its use.

In biliousness, constipation, headaches and indigestion, and in a great variety of liver, stomach and kidney troubles calomel was the most successful remedy, but its use was often neglected on account of its sickening qualities. Now it is the easiest and most pleasant of medicines to take.

One Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water,—that's all. No taste, no griping, no nausea, no salts. A good night's sleep and the next morning you are feeling fine, with a clean liver, a purified system and a big appetite. Eat what you please. No danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original, sealed packages, price 35-cents for the large family packages; ten cents for the small, trial size. Your druggist is authorized to refund the price as a guarantee that you will be thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Common Garden Sage and Sulphur makes streaked, faded or gray hair dark and youthful at once

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Feed For Anything

In our Feed Store you will find, at a very low price, feed for Poultry, Cows, Horses, Hogs, Sheep or any other animal. Planting seed, corn, maize, oats, cane and etc. Hay, the best on the market for less money. Flour and Meal, the best for home.

Attention Farmers

My Gins in Cameron are now ready and waiting to do your ginning. I have spent $15,000 in new machinery and equipment at Gin No. 2 and now have the best Gin in central Texas. I have been in the Gin Business for 17 consecutive years and have had experience with all kinds of Gin machinery, but know that our new Air Blast Steel Murray Gins have no equal. We have 10 seventy saw Double Ribbed Huller All Steel Air Blast Murray Gins, set in concrete with a new steel cleaner on each gin stand. Also 5 Double Ribbed Huller 70 Saw Pratt Stands with Continental Cleaner, Boll Breaker, etc., and also a new Hardwicke Etter Cleaner attached to each Pratt stand. In fact, I have not spared time or expense to make this a new model plant with all the new up-to-date machinery for ginning cotton, and I also have insurance covering your cotton in process of ginning.

I will give this gin my personal supervision. Come and see me there. We will gin from 12 to 15 bales per hour and give you as good results as the best gin machinery and competent labor can turn out.

Yours for the BEST,

Judging a Great Institution by Small Defects

By J. H. PUELICHER

President American Bankers Association.

It would be difficult to find a banker, understanding thoroughly the Federal Reserve System, willing to admit that we could continue a first-class commercial nation, without the Federal Reserve Banks, or mechanisms similar to them. Yet there is antagonism to the Federal Reserve Banks based in a measure on some minor mistakes in administration, but more generally on a misunderstanding of their purposes, of what should be expected of such a system.

The banker, as much as any man, is to blame for the present misconception. He found Federal Reserve Banks a ready scapegoat to blame for no matter what happened. If it seemed desirable to refuse or call a loan it was easy to say that the Federal Reserve Bank wished it, although it should have been refused because contrary to good banking practice.

Most of all was the system blamed for the fact that violent inflation which hundreds of business men and bankers hoped might be continued forever was finally checked by putting up Federal Reserve interest rates. There were those who blamed the system for not having put up the rate soon enough and others who blamed it because it put up the rate at all.

The penalty for thus blaming every business mishap on this valuable system may be the loss of its much needed benefits. If we wish to save the present bank of the United States from the fate of its two predecessors we must make known to America, to its rank and file, the splendid usefulness of these institutions.

We must admit at the outset that in their administration mistakes have been made, that governors of Federal Reserve Banks and members of the Federal Reserve Board are human beings, and in the administration of the affairs of any institution by human beings mistakes will be made, but these have been so insignificant as compared with the outstanding usefulness of the institutions themselves that they should be judged by the good which they have performed, which, after all, has been along the line of their designed achievement, rather than by those errors which time and experience can easily eliminate.

COOPERATIVE FARM MARKETING NOTES

Progress of the Movement to "Put Farming on Par With Other Big Business."

A pamphlet and questionnaire on co-operative farm marketing recently issued by the State Bank Division, American Bankers Association, has brought out valuable information on the subject from bankers, farmers and state agricultural departments. It is being used as a campaign document in the organization of co-operative marketing associations in various sections of the country, farmers having adopted its slogan: "Put Agriculture on a Par with Other Big Business."

The movement on the part of farmers toward co-operative marketing as a cure for their present economic plight is nation-wide. There has been notable progress in the development of such associations, some conspicuously successful ones being in operation at the present time. There have also been some disastrous failures among these ventures in co-operative marketing, which is the inevitable accompaniment of the progress of any movement. The "Banker-Farmer," published by the American Bankers Association, says:

"Cause and effect are operative in co-operative marketing as truly as they are in every other business enterprise. An association will not necessarily succeed or fail merely because it is a co-operative association, but because it conforms to or transgresses from the underlying principles of successful business operation. The movement itself is of great national import and the bankers of the country can materially aid or retard its progress. The responsibility of leadership in rural communities rests very largely with the country banker. It is his duty to be informed on all matters relating to the farmers' well-being."

Modern conditions are such that agriculture cannot be successful by individual effort. To regain its position as a basic industry, and as a force in national affairs, agriculture must depend upon organization and co-operation for economic production, for economic marketing and for the establishment of its proper relationship in community life.—Howard Leonard, President, Illinois Agricultural Association.

ROGERS GIRL MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR IS SHOT

MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR AND HAS SMALL HOPES OF RECOVERY.

Ruth Lewis, 16 year old daughter of Walter Lewis of Rogers, was struggling between life and death last night in a local hospital as a result of having been accidentally shot Saturday night by her uncle.

The girl was visiting with her cousin at Cedar Springs in Falls county Saturday night and arose during the night to get a drink of water in the dining room. Her uncle, Curtis Mears, and his wife were awakened and mistook the girl in the dark for a burglar, they said. There had been several burglaries in the neighborhood during the past few weeks. She was shot with a shotgun, the lead striking her in the head and tearing away part of the skull above the right eye.

Mr. Mears said that he called to the figure that he saw in the dark but the girl was no answer. Mr. Lewis said that his daughter spoke in a low voice always and it was probable that her voice was not heard, if she did answer.

The little girl was bravely struggling against odds to live, the doctors having reported from the first operation that "everything is against her" and her chances to recover are slight.

The Walter Lewis family is well known in the community two miles north of Rogers. Besides Ruth Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have a 10 year old daughter who is also here at the bedside of her sister.—Temple Telegram.

APPEALS ARE PERFECTED IN FOUR MILAM CASES

THREE CHARGED WITH LIQUOR LAW VIOLATIONS MAKE APPEALS.

Four appeals following convictions in the district court in Milam county have been perfected and are now before the court of criminal appeals at Austin.

The cases are as follows: Henry Taylor, Frank Stach and John Gandy each convicted for selling intoxicating liquor; Horace Pruett convicted on a charge of bigamy.

There will be a grand jury session in September when the fall term of District court convenes. A large number of criminal cases are on the docket but have not been set.

There has been little activity in the criminal district court here due to the fact that District Attorney Jack Lewis has been engaged in prosecuting cases in the county and justice courts, but beginning with the September term, attention will again be directed to the district court.

HIGHWAY REPORT.

Thursday August 16, 11:00 a. m. All highways are hot, dry and dusty.

Cameron to Dallas—Good to Burlington, fair through Rosebud, Lot to Chilton, out of Chilton take the new Sap highway through Satin and Norwood or go via Mooreville, avoid the new grade through Golenda. Out of Waco a short detour is necessary out of West, from Hillsboro must go via Alvarado and Middlesboro.

Cameron to Houston—Follow the yellow-black-yellow from Cameron to Branchville, take the big left gravel out of Branchville into Calvert and on the Hearne and Houston. This detour is necessary.

Road to Caldwell via Milano is opened all the way.

Road to San Antonio via Rogers and Little River is the best.

Road to Taylor via Thorndale is opened all the way.

Tuesday was record tourist day for Cameron. Cars came through thick from both directions. Among the tourists Louisiana and Colorado cars sped over Milam county roads.

PAUL H. MEDSKER WILL LEAVE HERE SEPTEMBER 10

In error the Herald printed a story that Paul H. Medsker, director of the band, would leave Cameron for two months vacation on August 10. Mr. Medsker will leave Cameron on Sept. 10 for a vacation of two months, after which he will return here to fill out his contract or supply the place of director. Mr. Medsker will go to Southwestern Theological Seminary at Fort Worth to be instructor of music.

COTTON MARKET HERE QUOTES $24.50 BASIS

ERRATIC MARKET PUZZLING TO BUYERS AND TRADING IS SLIGHTLY INACTIVE.

Cotton was selling in Cameron Thursday morning at 24.50 basis middling. Market conditions were described as erratic by buyers here although market was found for every bale of spot cotton offered at the above quotation.

The cotton movement is said to be well under way now and the gins are running at almost full time.

Unstable conditions in Europe are said to be having a bad effect on the market, but generally a much higher price than quoted for spots here will be paid before the season is over.

On Tuesday cotton sold for 25c per pound. Practically all the cotton marketed is of middling class and better due to the fact that we have had no rain or weather conditions to damage the staple.

ORGAN RECITAL.

On Thursday evening August 23, at 8 o'clock, Miss Dora Poteet of Dallas will appear in Organ Recital at the Methodist church in Cameron. She will be assisted by Mesdames J. L. Clinton, A. J. Triggs and Miss Louise Adams who will give voice numbers. This entertainment is free and promises to be one of the finest musical treats ever given in Cameron.

Miss Poteet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Poteet of Dallas, and a niece of George T. and Miss Mollie Moore of this city.

She has a pronounced natural talent and has training under some of the best instructors in the state. Since January 1921 she has studied under Mrs. J. H. Cassidy, Dean of Organ, S. M. U. She has been organist in the First Methodist church, Dallas, a church of 2500 members, for a year and a half. At present, she is studying in New York and will come to Cameron directly from that city.

The following program will be rendered Tuesday evening and should be heard by all lovers of good music.
